Readings for Morning Prayers 22nd - 28th November

As we enter the third week of lockdown, our readings focus on the hope that we have in God through Jesus and the hope to which we are called as we live day by day.

Monday	Psalm 71	God, our hope
Prayer	Mighty God, you are our hope and our refuge in times of trouble. Help us to trust you and to draw our strength from you day by day. Amen
Tuesday	Psalm 146	The God who is faithful
Prayer	Faithful God, you lift us up when we are down, you watch over us with loving care. We praise you for your faithfulness and for your goodness to us. Amen
Wednesday	Hebrews 6: 13-20	An anchor for the soul
Prayer	Unchanging God, your promises are true and you have given us hope as an anchor for the soul, that we may know security and safety in this changing world. Help us to cope with the challenges of change and to rest in your peace. Amen
Thursday	Romans 5: 1-11	The hope of glory
Prayer	Loving God, we thank you that you have poured out your love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom you give to us freely. Help us to rejoice in the hope that we have and that your glory may be seen in us as your children. Amen

Friday Ephesians 1: 15-23 Our calling of hope

Prayer Merciful God, open the eyes of our hearts that we may know the hope to which you have called us. May we rejoice as we seek to know you more deeply as we pray, day by day. Amen

Saturday Revelation 21: 1-7 Looking forward

Prayer Mighty God, we look forward to that time when death and mourning, crying and pain are all ended. Make us and remake us, that we may be ready to meet you face to face and enjoy your loving presence for ever. Amen
